OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review.

The Philippines Stock Exchange index (PSEi) declined 5.33% during the first quarter of the year to close at 6,180.72. Local shares plunged 10.2% in January on index rebalancing activities and lower-than-expected fourth quarter GDP of 5.2% (consensus estimate was 5.5%). The semi-annual rebalancing of the PSEi saw China Banking Corp (CBC) and Ayala Land REIT (AREIT) added to the index while Wilcon Depot, Inc (WLCON) and Nickel Asia Corp (NIKL) were taken out of the main bourse. This caused a 4% drop during the last day of January as most of the big cap names were down. The two added index names comprised 5.68% while the excluded names were just 0.61% in terms of index weight. February saw a recovery as the stock market gained 2.3% after better-than-expected inflation print, stronger peso, stable full year earnings reports for 2024, and reduction in reserve requirement ratio (RRR) to 5% which will take effect by March 28. Food inflation continued to trend lower in March, which printed at 1.8%, following the previous month's 2.1%. This led the BSP to cut policy rates by 25 bps to 5.5% and hinted more cuts for the year. The full year 2025 inflation forecast was cut to 2.3%, coming from 3.5% during the previous meeting.

In the short run, we expect the PSEi to remain volatile as trade tension between the US and the rest of the world continues to unfold. Market sentiment will remain fragile as trade tariff negotiations happen in the next few months. Trading range will be 5,800 to 6,400.

INVESTMENT POLICY / PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS

The Fund may invest in deposits in other banks, securities issued or guaranteed by the Philippine Government or the BSP, tradable securities issued by any supranational entity, equity and equity-linked constituents of the PSE and Such other tradeable investment outlets as may be allowed by the BSP.
