ARTICLE V

LIABILITIES OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD AND OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Liability. – No provision of these by-laws shall be construed to relieve any member of the board or officer from the responsibilities arising from their fiduciary duties to the Corporation, in accordance with law and these by-laws.

SECTION 2. Indemnity of Directors and Officers and Agents. – Subject to applicable provisions of the Investment Company Act, as such may be amended from time to time, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and any other applicable law, each present and future director, officer and agent (and his heirs, executors and administrators) shall be indemnified by the Corporation against reasonable costs and expenses incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or agent of the Corporation, except in relation to any actions, suits or proceedings in which he has been adjudged liable because of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. In the absence of an adjudication which expressly imposes on the director, officer or agent liability to the Corporation or its stockholders for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence and reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office, or in the event of a settlement, each director, officer and agent (and his heirs, executors and administrators) shall be indemnified by the Corporation against payments made, including reasonable costs and expenses, provided that such indemnity shall be conditioned upon the prior determination by a resolution of a majority of those members of the board of directors of the Corporation who are not involved in the action, suit or proceeding that the director or officer has no liability by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office, and provided further that if a majority of the members of the board of directors of the Corporation is involved in the action, suit or proceeding, such determination shall have been made by a written opinion of independent counsel. Amounts paid in settlement shall not exceed costs, fees, and expenses which would have been reasonably incurred in the action, suit or proceeding had the action, suit or proceeding been litigated to conclusion. Such a determination by the board of directors, or by independent counsel; and the payment of amounts by the Corporation on the basis thereof shall not prevent a stockholder from challenging such indemnification by appropriate legal proceedings on the grounds that the person indemnified was liable to the Corporation or its security holders by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such officer, director or agent, provided, however, that nothing herein nor any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or by-laws of the Corporation shall be deemed to protect or indemnify any officer, director or agent of the Corporation against any liability to the Corporation or to security holders to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office.

ARTICLE VI

when the sale or contract of sale is made, except when any contract or arrangement is in effect between the Corporation and distributor which contemplates the sale of shares by the distributor to the public at prices based on the net asset value in effect at the time of sale by the distributor to the public; the Corporation may, pursuant to such contract or arrangement, sell to the distributor the number of shares needed by the distributor to fill orders received by the distributor during the period when a given net asset value is in effect, at a price less than said net asset value, provided that the sale by the Corporation to the distributors is effected within a reasonable time after the close of the period as the board of Directors may approve.

No shares of its stock shall be sold by the Corporation during any period [other than the usual periods of not in excess of three (3) days in connection with the usual holidays] when the Philippine Stock Exchange is closed, except to a distributor under a contract or arrangement as aforesaid to cover sales made by the distributor prior to the closing, or except when the net asset value of the shares is determined pursuant to Article IX.
