his being or having been a director, officer or agent of the Corporation, except in relation to any actions, suits or proceedings in which he has been adjudged liable because of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. In the absence of an adjudication which expressly imposes on the director, officer or agent liability to the Corporation or its stockholders for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence and reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office, or in the event of a settlement, each director, officer and agent (and his heirs, executors and administrators) shall be indemnified by the Corporation against payments made, including reasonable costs and expenses, provided that such indemnity shall be conditioned upon the prior determination by a resolution of a majority of those members of the board of directors of the Corporation who are not involved in the action, suit or proceeding that the director or officer has no liability by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office, and provided further that if a majority of the members of the board of directors of the Corporation is involved in the action, suit or proceeding, such determination shall have been made by a written opinion of independent counsel. Amounts paid in settlement shall not exceed costs, fees, and expenses which would have been reasonably incurred in the action, suit or proceeding had the action, suit or proceeding been litigated to conclusion. Such a determination by the board of directors, or by independent counsel, and the payment of amounts by the Corporation on the basis thereof shall not prevent a stockholder from challenging such indemnification by appropriate legal proceedings on the grounds that the person indemnified was liable to the Corporation or its security holders by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such officer, director or agent, provided, however, that nothing herein nor any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or by-laws of the Corporation shall be deemed to protect or indemnify any officer, director or agent of the Corporation against any liability to the Corporation or to security holders to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office.
